

"LOVE PIRATE" SAYS IF READERS WILL WRITE TO HER IN GOOD FAITH, SHE WILL REPLY

Theda Bara.

BY THEDA BARA

Written Especially for The Day Book

One of the things I crave most is to know what people think of me.

It is not because I am vain—for some of the letters I have already received are not cause for vanity—but because I feel in such close touch with all those who watch my work I almost feel that each person is a friend!

Another reason is that in this work I am doing I want to be helpful. I want to do good. I want to point out lessons for those who need them. And if I can learn what the public thinks of me I can tell if I am a success in my work, if I am to realize my ambition.

Of course I have received many